Srebrenica report published on independent commission's website – SRNA

 July 21, 2021

The report of the Independent International Commission of Inquiry on the Sufferings of All Peoples in the Srebrenica Region between 1992 and 1995 has been made available on the Commission's website.

“The Government of Srpska is convinced that only a complete and true view of events in the Srebrenica region, but also in the entire BiH, will contribute to strengthening trust and tolerance among the peoples in BiH, final reconciliation and coexistence of present and future generations,” it was said in the statement of the [Republika Srpska Center for Research of War, War Crimes and Search for Missing Persons].

The Government expresses reverence for all victims and their families of the tragic conflict in BiH, condemns war crimes committed on all sides and demands non-discriminatory prosecution of those responsible for war crimes on all sides.

Speaking about the report, the president of the Commission, the Israeli historian Gideon Greif, said that the Commission made a serious, professional and balanced report, which was faithful to the truth and historical events.
